

CITIES ON THE RIVER Preparing for Climate Change

You are warmly invited to a Roundtable by Councillor Murad Qureshi of the London Assembly, and Chair of the London Waterways Commission, on the theme of 'Cities on the River—Lessons from London.'

Mr Qureshi is in Kolkata on the occasion of a joint CSM and Kolkata Municipal Corporation event exploring climate change and cities such as Kolkata and London.

This Roundtable is fittingly being held at the Floatel—India's only floating hotel.

About INTACH :

INTACH, The Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage, a national NGO, was set up in 1984 under the Chairmanship of Late Rajiv Gandhi, with the objective of conservation and preservation of India's rich and diverse heritage – Architectural, Cultural, Material and Natural. It works through a network of Chapters established countrywide with mainly volunteers manning them.

INTACH's West Bengal and Calcutta Regional Chapters has been actively involved in working towards the above objective by Listing and Documentation, Heritage Legislation, Awareness Creation, Art Conservation and Heritage Education.

As part of the Heritage Awareness Creation programmes, it has tied up with other like-minded organizations to hold cultural functions/seminars/workshops at Heritage sites and other similar locations in Calcutta.

About Centre for Social Markets :

The Centre for Social Markets (www.csmworld.org) is an independent non-profit organization dedicated to making markets work for the triple bottom line - people, planet and profit. Founded in 2000, CSM has pioneered a focus on indigenous industry in emerging markets and the Asian diaspora globally - mobilising these constituencies on corporate citizenship, sustainable development and human rights issues. This event is being held as part of CSM's Climate Challenge India campaign which seeks to educate and generate positive energy for climate action in India.
